As an Iowan who worked his way through college and law school, Chicago personal injury lawyer Jared Staver knows how costly – yet important – further education can be. We are proud to announce our third annual scholarship, to help ambitious students with their educational goals and future career aspirations. The winner will receive $5,000 towards educational expenses.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must meet the following criteria to be eligible for the Staver Law Group National Scholarship:

- Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.
- Be enrolled or accepted to an accredited college, university, or graduate student within the United States.
- Have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Applicants should also demonstrate good character and high initiative.

REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must submit the following documents to be considered:

- A completed application form
- A current high school or college transcript
- A typed essay of 300-500 words about how personal injury lawyers play a role in leading safety initiatives by helping those injured and how you as an individual can promote personal and community safety into your everyday life.

Completed materials can be submitted by any of the following methods:

- Email: scholarship@chicagolawyer.com
- Mail: 120 W. Madison St, Ste 520, Chicago, IL 60602-4302

AWARD

The application and supporting material must be received by December 1, 2016. One applicant will be awarded and notified by December 31, 2016. The scholarship is to be used exclusively for tuition and related expenses. A check will be made payable to the award recipient’s school to cover educational expenses. Recipient is expected to submit receipts in accordance with IRS regulations.
